Trinity Protection Services and Makopano Solutions Group Join Forces to Create MKT Tactical.

Boksburg, 2nd October 2023 - Trinity Protection Services and Makopano Solutions Group are excited to announce the merger of their esteemed security divisions. The strategic alliance creates a powerhouse that offers unparalleled protection and support under the new MKT Tactical banner.

MKT Tactical is a full-service security and armed response company providing comprehensive security solutions and advanced physical security services for its residential clients in the greater Boksburg region.

Unveiling MKT Tactical: Your Ultimate Security Partner

Trinity Protection Services is well known for its unwavering commitment to security and risk management and, Makopano Solutions Group is highly regarded for its innovative approach to cutting-edge security technologies and solutions. The merger of the two brands into MKT Tactical brings together both companies long standing experience in the area and two quality security resources that will now have an even broader reach, ensuring that more residents in the East Rand can access unparalleled security and tactical services.

The integration process will be smooth, with a primary focus on ensuring that existing Trinity Protection and Makopano Solutions Group clients continue to receive the high-quality service they are accustomed to.

With a core that revolves around the centre of operations 24/7 Security Services Command Centre, , manned by expertly trained and specialized operators. Cutting-edge technology is implemented to deliver advanced security solutions and bolster the ability of our team.

For uninterrupted business operations, we maintain a back-up uninterrupted power supply with our control room, ensuring monitoring services are never halted during load shedding with a triple redundancy solution in implementation.

“This merger is not just a union of strengths, but also the genesis of MKT Tactical—a brand that embodies the fusion of experience, expertise, and excellence of two respected security operations,” said Jaco Luus, CEO of Trinity Protection Services.

“MKT Tactical is formed with the aim of presenting clients with an exceptional level of security backed by a proven track record and an uninterrupted 24/7 control & monitoring centre.” JJ Venter, Founder Makopano Group Solutions.
